SHAI HILLS RESOURCE RESERVE

Is about an hour-drive north of Accra bordering the Akosombo road. This makes this location one of the closest wild life viewing areas in Accra and one of the most easily accessible in Ghana. The best time for wildlife viewing is early in the morning. You get to see baboons and birds, as well as Kob antelope, bushbuck or monkeys. You may choose to go on a 2-hour walking safari where you will get to see troops of olive bamboos. It would take about an hour to drive from here to the Kotoka International Airport over 45.3 km via Accra Aflao Road.

MOLE NATIONAL PARK

Mole National Park is the largest national park in Ghana and provides the best wildlife experience in Ghana. This was the first national park to be established. It covers an area of 4,912km. Mole National Park is the only place in Ghana where you can experience elephants in the wild as well as antelopes, bushbucks, monkeys, warthogs, baboons and other smaller wildlife. Because of the lack of predators, safaris can be done on foot - a unique experience quite different from the vehicle safaris in southern and eastern Africa. To actually walk so close to elephants is an exhilarating experience you will never forget. A two-day drive or domestic flight is required to visit Mole.

WLI FALLS

Ghana's highest waterfalls which flow throughout the year. It is located at the edge of the Agumatsa Wild-life Sanctuary, which has hundreds of fruit bats.

KAKUM NATIONAL PARK

Kakum National Park is the most accessible and foremost nature reserve in southern Ghana. It consists of a 375 sq km area of tropical rainforest in the Central Region, 30 km north of Cape Coast. Virgin rainforest has been preserved as a habitat for birds, butterflies and rare animals. The most notable endangered species are the Diana monkey, giant bongo antelope, yellow-backed duiker and elephant. The Park has a long series of hanging bridges known as the Kakum Canopy Walkway which is a unique feature. At 40m(130ft) height, the visitor can view plants and animals from vantage point. It allows hikers to experience a portion of the jungle usually reserved for climbers.

LARABANGA MOSQUE

The Larabanga Mosque is a mosque built in the Sudanese architectural style in the village of Larabanga, Ghana. It is the oldest mosque in the country and one of the oldest in West Africa, and has been referred to as the “Mecca of West Africa”. It has undergone restoration several times since it was founded in 1421. The World Monuments Fund (WMF) has contributed substantially to its restoration, and lists it as one of the 100 Most Endangered Sites. The restoration works have revived the knowledge of adobe maintenance.

MANHYIA PALACE

The Manhyia Palace is the seat of the Asantehene of Asanteman, as well as his official residence. It is located at Kumasi, the capital of the Ashanti Kingdom and Ashanti Region. The first palace is now a museum. Otumfuo Opoku Ware II built the new palace, which is close to the old one and is used by the current Asantehene, Otumfuo Osei Tutu II.
